

The way cafe

It's Friday night. What to do, what to do....

If only there was a friendly place I could hang out with my friends...

If only this place had FREE (or at least dirt cheap) coffee, tea, soda, or stuff like that....

If only a place existed that had FREE stuff to eat (or at least dirt cheap), like cookies, or other cool things to munch on while we're hang'n out...

If only this place had FREE entertainment, like Scheduled Singers or maybe an Open Mic Night...

With singers / people with positive things to say and won't drag you down with negative stuff....

If only a place like that existed on a Friday night....

Well, guess what!! It Does!!!
